

No Interest

For up to 10 Months

A smarter way to make your first months of homeownership easier.

Our Initial Interest Subsidy Program helps new homeowners save big at the start. For up to 10 months, your interest is covered - so you pay only principal and escrow.

Perfect for new builds and builder incentives, first-time or move-up buyers, anyone looking to build back their savings after closing.

How it works

A seller or builder provides a one-time contribution that covers the interest portion of your mortgage payment for up to ten months. During that time, you only pay principal and escrow, keeping your monthly payments lower while you settle in, manage other expenses and build up your savings. Once the subsidy period ends, your regular mortgage payments begin.
